

A SENSATIONAL CRASH. Five persons were killed and fifteen injured when a big Martin bombing plane crashed into a crowd recently at Moundville, W. Va. The plane, in charge of two army pilots, who jumped and escaped, dove into a group of parked autos more than a dozen of which were destroyed by fire when the plane's fuel tanks exploded and sprayed them with blazing gasoline. International

MT. ASSINIBOINE ISN'T TWINS, but Lake Magog mirroring this Canadian Matterhorn gives that impression. Is the picture right side up or up side down—or does it matter? This great peak of the Canadian Rockies, nearly 12,000 feet high, is having many callers these days, pony riders and hikers leaving Banff, home of the Canadian Alpine Club, twice a week to view this scenic masterpiece. *C. STEAMING WITHOUT A SOUL ABOARD. The historic old battleship Iowa, veteran of the Spanish-American War, steaming along under radio control off the Virginia Capes where she was used as a bombing target by our air fleet. She has been stripped of guns and large painted targets show fore and aft. U. S. Navy Official from I.F.S.

Right—THE LATEST IN SWIMMING RACES. Pretty Miss Barrett astride her deep sea going bicycle with which she won an interesting handicap race a week ago against a number of contestants over a course from the Battery to Midland Beach. Miss Barrett's time was 2 hours and 40 minutes. Central News
